

Richard Barnes

Richard Barnes has been involved in local politics in West London for some thirty years. Formerly Leader of the London Borough of Hillingdon, Richard was a member of the Greater London Assembly from its inception in 2000 until May 2012. From 2008 until 2012 he was the Statutory Deputy Mayor of London with responsibilities that included Community Cohesion, Community Relations, London Resilience, and he was the Chairman of the London 2012 Access and Diversity Forum for the Olympic and Paralympic Games.

Chairman of the 7 July Review Committee Richard retains a deep interest in business continuity and resilience, ensuring that London, its communities and businesses are prepared for catastrophic events that can affect the City its visitors and residents.

A former Deputy Chairman of the Metropolitan Police Committee, Richard is an elected Member of the Council of the London Borough of Hillingdon.