

Will Higham
Director of Campaigns and Communications

Will Higham joined London First in October 2015 as director of campaigns and communications. His role delivers campaigns that help towards London First's mission and the communications function that works with the rest of the organisation.

Previous campaign and communications roles were at Save the Children UK, Demos and Tech UK, among others. He has an MBA from Ashridge Business School.